

RIOTERS SHOT DOWN IN PENNSYLVANIA.

BATTLE BETWEEN DEPUTIES AND SLAVS.

One Dead, Two Dying—Strikers Capture Four Miners and Hold Them—Ohio Strikers Burn Bridges—Fight in West Virginia a Savage One.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., June 11.—One striker killed in his boots, two others dying, and a fourth shot through is the result of the battle yesterday at Lamont coke works. There were seven deputies on one side and a mob of strikers on the other. Unbiased testimony is that the mob not only provoked but compelled the deputies to fire on them, after the strikers had compelled them to retreat and had fired several shots. Four workmen, John Delaney, Oliver Attley, John Britt, and James Furlough, who live at Leisenring, have been working at the Frick Coke company's valley works for some time. They were captured by strikers and observed. The deputies were sent by the Frick company to rescue them.

Not long after daylight the men began to assemble on the commons by the hundred. They engaged in the wildest demonstrations, and it was thought that they then had the four captives in their possession. When the deputies were found the mob raised a howl and surrounded them. Many of the strikers had revolvers and all carried clubs. They moved against the deputies, who retreated under a shower of clubs and stones. After ordering the crowd to disperse the deputies opened fire together, and the strikers stood to it and fought gamely. The first shots were fired by them, and they fired as coolly and as rapidly as did the deputies, and they kept closing in on the men who were working the rifles until they were driven to the extreme end of the company's ground, where they made a stand. By that time three of the strikers were down and several others were wounded.

The strikers began at once to carry away their wounded. The dead man and two who were fatally wounded were left in the road where they fell. The number of wounded may not be known for several days, as they will be concealed if possible. The names of the dead and wounded can not be learned. Nobody but the strikers knew them, and they refuse to tell who the men were or give any circumstances.

Sheriff Richards sent Deputies Richards and Middleburgh to the scene, and ten deputies arrived from Valley about the same time. The force was soon increased to twenty men, each with a rifle. The last of the strikers lingering at a safe distance then dispersed, leaving the authorities in quiet possession. No move was made to care for the wounded.

Late at night the two Slavs most seriously wounded were taken to the cottage hospital at Connelville for treatment. They are fatally injured, being shot through the hips. Dr. Smith, who attended them, says they can live but a short time. The sheriff and his attorney will ask for a full investigation. The deputies identified six of the more active strikers in the fight and subsequently arrested them. They are now in jail together here.

Another detachment of deputies was at once formed to go in search of the four men held prisoners by the strikers. But not a trace of them has been seen, and it is feared that they have been murdered by the strikers in revenge for the loss of the men hurt in the battle.

At 9 o'clock last night six more strikers were arrested at Lamont and sent here to jail. It is officially stated that at least 200 more arrests will be made as the result of the rioting and kidnapping. All over the south end of the region the old turbulent spirit is astir, and it is noticeable that the lawless element is in the saddle now, and the conservative leaders and counselors are unheeded.

OHIO MINERS BURN BRIDGES.

Drive Away Guards and Cause a Call for Militia to Protect Them.

MASILLON, Ohio, June 11.—Coal is moving into Cleveland as fast as seems expedient. The greatest anxiety now concerns the unguarded territory between Massillon and Uhrichville, where no trouble has heretofore been anticipated. Yesterday morning 300 miners assembled between Midvale and New Philadelphia, overpowered the two watchmen at a trestle bridge, and set fire to and destroyed the structure. The watchmen escaped and were followed by the mob, who shot at them repeatedly. A temporary bridge was built after traffic had been delayed four hours. At Massillon an attempt was made to destroy one of the obnoxious coal trains by the explosion of two dynamite cartridges on the bridge over Newman's creek. The charge was sufficient to have derailed the engine, but the explosions took place after the train had passed. Miners say that the miscreants are not strikers, as the latter understand how to use high explosives. The noise and shock startled the entire city and have created a great deal of apprehension. Six members of a Lima military company arrived here last night at 10 o'clock to continue south and join their regiment. At the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling station they were surrounded by a crowd of several hundred men, who jeered at them. The arrival of a coal train distracted the attention of the crowd and the militiamen escaped. Sheriff Adams has been appealed to to guard the bridges at Midvale, Strassburg and Dover. Nearly all bridges are wood. Four deputy sheriffs will be placed at each to-night. State troops are expected here to-night. Two regiments will be distributed along the roads.

The sheriff arrived in Massillon at 8 o'clock last night and began to swear in deputies. No coal will be moved for a time, but fear is entertained for the bridges. An engine is in readiness to carry guards to the scene of trouble should it arise.

The miners of the Massillon district have been growing more restive ever since the break in the coal blockade, and met yesterday afternoon at West Brookfield. They marched in a body to Millport, their numbers swelling rapidly as they proceeded. At Millport they soon had a crowd of 600 or 700, and they organized with Henry Mullen, the subdistrict president, in the chair, and put out pickets to keep off outsiders. Inflammatory speeches were made and rumors regarding the purpose of the meeting were scattered, causing a general feeling of apprehension. The meeting denounced Gov. McKinley for having called out the militia. At 10 o'clock, although the meeting had adjourned, the miners are still about discussing the events of the last few days. They now line the railroad tracks in groups of thirty and forty. They are nearly all armed and in no frame of mind to see any non-union coal pass.

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 11.—Deputy Marshal Harmon received a telegram from United States Marshal Haskell of Cleveland last night instructing him to recruit and arm fifty deputies and have them ready for service, to be used in the coal strike difficulty.

STRIKERS FIRE ON DEPUTIES.

Ambush Fifteen of the Sheriff's Men, but Do No Injury.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., June 11.—A party of fifteen deputies while approaching Bull Hill on their way from camp to this place yesterday morning were fired upon from ambush by twenty miners. The deputies, being unprepared for an attack, retreated without returning the fire. Gen. Brooks called out enough militia to surround the miners and arrested them. No one was injured. Gen. Brooks will take charge of all persons arrested by the sheriff and escort them to Colorado Springs, where they will be turned over to the sheriff. The cost of this strike to El Paso county has already reached $160,000 and is piling up at an estimated rate of $6,000 a day.

An agreement has been made between Commissioner Boynton and Brig.-Gen. Brooks whereby the deputy sheriffs now in camp on Bull Hill mountain will leave for Colorado Springs in the morning. Persons for whom warrants are out are here to be taken in charge by the militia and turned over to the sheriff at the county seat.

DENVER, Colo., June 11.—Gov. Waite threatens to march the militia against the deputies if they do not at once disperse. The leaders of the deputy sheriffs are defiant.

Strikers and Militia Shoot. WHEELING, W. Va., June 11.—The Ohio militia in camp at Wheeling Creek, three miles west of the river, were fired on by some persons in the hills at frequent intervals last night from midnight till this morning and in a few cases the sentinels returned the fire, but so far as known no bloodshed resulted. This morning strikers burned 144 feet of a wooden bridge at Goshen, west of Wheeling Creek. No coal could therefore be moved until the bridge was repaired.

Will Rush Through a Heavy Shipment.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., June 11.—Preparations are being made for the largest west-bound shipment of coal ever recorded in the Flattop belt. The Norfolk & Western officials are proceeding on the theory that 1,000 or 1,200 cars can be forwarded as easily as one-half the number. Private advices from the Ohio strike indicate desperate opposition to Norfolk & Western shipments. Extra vigilance is being exercised to protect life and property.

Bridges Burned in Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 11.—At an early hour yesterday morning a bridge on the Linton branch of the Louisville & Nashville railroad was burned. This is the third bridge that has been burned within the last four days and all the fires are supposed to be of incendiary origin. Suspicion points to the striking miners.

Women Attack Miners Who Work.

TRINIDAD, Colo., June 11.—At the Sopris mines yesterday a party of women, wives of the strikers, stationed themselves at the opening of the mine and attempted by abusive language and throwing stones to prevent the men from going to work. A Mexican miner was dumped in the mud and pounded with stones.

Heavy Fire Loss in Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 11.—Fire yesterday afternoon destroyed the Keystone Implement company, Nos. 1311 to 1321 West Thirtieth street, and the Buford and George Manufacturing company's buildings at Nos. 1311 to 1315 West Thirtieth street. The loss is $310,000. Four firemen were injured, not it is thought fatally.

One dollar straw hats fifty cents at Ziegler's.

THE WOOL SCHEDULE A THEME OF TALK.

DEBATE IN THE SENATE LIKELY TO BE LIVELY.

The Matter Will Be Disposed Of as Fast as Possible—May Be Discussed Under the Five-Minute Rule—Proceedings in the House During the Week.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—It is expected on both sides of the senate chamber that the woolen schedule will be reached during the present week in the consideration of the tariff bill. There is a tacit agreement among the republican and democratic leaders that the debate shall be continued under the five-minute rule on the wines, cotton manufactures, and flax schedules. Senator Aldrich, as the representative of the republican side of the chamber, has expressed the opinion that these schedules would be disposed of with little delay. He said the understanding for five-minute speeches would not be continued when the woolen schedule should be reached, and he expressed the opinion that three or four days' debate would be necessary before the wool and woolen schedule is acted upon. Some of the democratic leaders think the schedule may be disposed of in two days. This schedule will develop one of the most important debates connected with the bill. Next to the duty on sugar, free wool has attracted more attention than any other item, and there can be no doubt that many republican senators will make speeches vigorously assailing the democratic position. The democrats, while not expecting or hoping to secure consideration of this schedule under the five-minute rule, are nevertheless hopeful that they can make an arrangement for the fixing of a definite number of days for the debate.

BILLS IN THE HOUSE.

Hatch Pressing His Anti-Option Measure for Early Consideration.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The Indian question in its various ramifications on schools, agents, rations, and supply depots will continue to occupy the attention of the house the early days of the coming week. Judge Holman, in charge of the bill, said yesterday he expected to pass the bill by to-morrow night if he was not obliged to surrender Monday to District of Columbia legislation, in which case he expects a vote Wednesday. After that there are a number of important bills struggling for priority. The general deficiency bill will be reported to the house Tuesday, and Chairman Sayres of the appropriation committee will urge its immediate consideration in order to clear the calendar of appropriation bills. Representative Sayers will be in charge of the deficiency bill, notwithstanding the fact that Representative Breckinridge of Kentucky is chairman of the deficiency subcommittee. It is expected that Representative Hatch will try to have the anti-option bill follow the Indian bill. Representative Cooper of Indiana also expects to have a day set apart soon for his bill, authorizing the taxation of greenbacks. Representative Livingston of Georgia is pressing the bill for government aid to the cotton exposition in Atlanta. Chairman Culberson of the judiciary committee also wants early recognition for several important bills affecting Federal court procedure, and the territorial statehood bills are being vigorously pressed to the front. No exact order of priority for these bills has yet been made, but they are the measures which are to receive earliest attention.

KANSAS BRIDGES SWEEP AWAY

Traffic Stopped on Both the Frisco and Santa Fe Roads.

AUGUSTA, Kan., June 11.—The Walnut river here is out of its banks and enormous damage has been done to crops. Wheat in the shock was swept down the stream and that not harvested has been ruined. The Santa Fe bridge has been taken out six miles north, stopping all traffic. Residents in the southern part of town moved out in boats, as their homes are surrounded by water and some of the houses may be carried away before morning by the raging torrent.

ATCHISON, Kan., June 11.—The June rise of the Missouri river has commenced at this place and indications are it will reach a point higher than for many years. The probabilities are that the entire town site of East Atchison will be carried away by the river during this rise.

Rains Break Severe Iowa Drought.

KEOKUK, Iowa, June 11.—The drought in southeastern Iowa and western Illinois was broken at 9:30 last night, at which hour it began raining hard, and continued during the greater part of the night.

FORT DODGE, Iowa, June 11.—The severest drought this part of Iowa has ever experienced at this season of the year was broken yesterday by a good snow. Small grain has suffered, but corn is promising.

Sermons by Scotch-Irish Delegates.

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 11.—The Scotch-Irish meetings closed here yesterday with sermons by leading ministers who were delegates to the various churches. Dr. John Hall spoke in four different places.

WILL SHOOT TO KILL IF MINERS FIGHT.

A DESPERATE SITUATION AT PANA, ILLINOIS.

The First Regiment of Chicago in Readiness to Quell Any Uprising—Sheriff at Pekin Captures and Destroys Boats—A Number of Bridges Blown Up.

PANA, Ill., June 11.—The critical point in the coal miners' strike here is expected to be reached when the employees of the mines go to work. Should the strikers attempt any interference the First regiment, which arrived here from Chicago early yesterday morning, has instructions from Adjutant-General Orendorf to shoot to kill. If the chance is offered, and many prominent citizens think it will be, it is expected the coal troubles will be brought to a head and the anarchistic elements silenced here. The impression among the officers of the First regiment is that there will be little if any trouble, and many think a call to arms highly improbable.

At the same time Col. Turner is prepared for war at an instant's notice. In two minutes the troops can be got into line ready to charge any attacking force. The regiment is under waiting orders and may be sent home Wednesday. The only fear on the part of the troop officers in case of a conflict is that the miners may use dynamite.

The appointment of an arbitration committee from the citizens and the strikers is reported.

The miners had a secret meeting yesterday afternoon. After a prolonged discussion no decision was reached as to their future action. It is understood they disagreed as to the proposition to be made. It was learned that several wagon loads of provisions had been forwarded from Rochester to the strikers' camps. Sheriff Johnson says he has 250 deputies and can count on 500 in an emergency. Sixty of them have rifles and 100 of them have shotguns. He considers the situation serious. The miners of the country are looking for the fight to be lost or won here, he says. He fears the action of the 250 strangers among the local strikers. He says had not the troops been called out the town would have been in a state of anarchy and in possession of a mob.

Late advices from local strikers are to the effect that 400 men will assemble at Locust and Third streets to-day and from that point make an attempt to prevent the Penwell miners from going to work. Sheriff Johnson and a posse of deputies are to be on hand for any disturbance. The First regiment will be on battalion parade at the time and should the unexpected riot occur the battle will be fought in the streets of the city.

The camp is situated in an admirable position to reach all the coal mines in a few minutes. One-half mile north-east is the Springside mine, three-quarters of a mile northeast is the north shaft of the Pana Coal company, four blocks west is the Pana Coal company shaft No. 1, and six blocks southwest is the Penwell shaft. One known camp of strikers is northwest and south and another southeast of the camp. The Penwell shaft is considered the most dangerous on account of the many Americans employed there. The men are said to be making fair wages and want to work if left alone. Many miners object to work under guard and say they will not work while the militia is here. Operator Broehl and Operator Overholt say their mines will be put in operation at once.

CAPTURE AND DESTROY BOATS.

Sheriff at Pekin Is Unable to Arrest Any More Miners.

PEKIN, Ill., June 11.—An unsuccessful effort was made by Sheriff Frederick and his deputies yesterday to apprehend and arrest more of the striking miners wanted on account of Wednesday's riot. They have caught the sheriff's plans and are keeping out of his way. His deputies went up and down the river in a pleasure boat, stopping at Wesley City, Bartonville, and other points to capture skiffs and destroy rafts as well as arrest rioters. The miners ran away and hid themselves in the hills, so that it was impossible to find and get them. The posse succeeded, however, in taking three skiffs and a number of fish boats. They were brought here for safe keeping. Two rafts were destroyed. Preliminary examination of the men now in custody will be commenced to-day. An effort will be made to have John Geher and others of the principals released on habeas corpus. The authorities here, however, expect to make out an unbuildable case against Geher.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 11.—Gov. Altgeld has recalled Major Cabanis and Companies F and G of the Third regiment from Pekin and ordered them home. The governor ordered Company C, Sixth Infantry of Galesburg, under command of Capt. McGuire, to report at Pekin and assume command, which he has done. The sheriff of Tazewell county wires he has arrested thirty-three strikers. The militia is needed only to guard the jail.

URGED TO STAND OUT.

Hocking Valley Miners Protest to Their Delegates.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 11.—There are no surface indications upon which to base a prediction as to what the operators and miners in their district conference to-day will do. If there is any desire to break away from instructions on the part of Hocking Valley representatives they have been doubtless strengthened in their stand against a compromise, for meetings opposed to any such move were held all over the valley to-day and resolutions to that effect telegraphed to their delegates here. President Mc Bride refuses to commit himself in any way, but it is plain from his manner that he is not sure of a compromise. The feeling among the miners is overwhelmingly against a compromise.

NEW YORK, June 11.—It is generally believed in this city by men who are representatives of bituminous coal mines that the end of the great strike is now in sight. They reason that when fighting commences between strikers and officers of the law there is no doubt as to a quick settlement in favor of the employees.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 11.—The miners and operators were in session all day yesterday, but no agreement was reached. The conference adjourned subject to the call of President McGregor of the Miners' union, but it is safe to say that no more conferences will be held. The miners have decided to send delegations into Kansas to induce the workmen there to quit.

Mayor Hayward Expects Trouble. PANA, Ill., June 11.—Mayor W. E. Hayward says he thinks the trouble is not yet at an end; that the presence of the soldiers is only delaying the war and that there is enough of the anarchistic element in the community to tear things loose at any moment.

The strikers, in justifying their actions, say they have been receiving only 50 cents a day for their work. One man, who has been in the business nineteen years, said he was able to earn only $3 or $4 a week at present prices. Late last night a meeting of the city council was in session conferring with State's Attorney Creighton on the question of sending a force to disperse the strikers at the different camps. The opinion of Creighton was the county had no right to interfere with the men so long as they were peaceable on private property, so the meeting adjourned without taking action. The scheme proposed was to send the deputies and afterward the troops against the strikers and drive them from the county. If any legal way can be found this will be done to-day.

Bullet Fired Into a Train.

TOLEDO, Ill., June 11.—Just before the Santa Fe passenger No. 5 arrived at Streator at 7:54 last evening some one fired a shot at the train. The ball went through a window glass in the smoker and missed the newsboy only a few inches. The shot caused quite a panic among the passengers. It is supposed the shot was fired by striking coal miners.

Bomb Discovered at Minook.

MINOOK, Ill., June 11.—What seems to be a bomb was found yesterday at the door of M. O'Connell's marble shop. It is made of gaspise and has five fuses protruding from one end. It will be examined to-day.

CRASHES THROUGH A BRIDGE.

Two Drowned and Several Injured on the Canadian Pacific.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 11.—A bad accident occurred yesterday to the west-bound express on the Canadian Pacific, due here to-day. The accident occurred at the crossing of Mattawa river, fifteen miles west of Fort William. Fires had destroyed the trestlework underneath the bridge and when in the center of that structure it gave way and the engine and four cars were piled into the river. The wrecked cars took fire from the burning bridge and almost the entire train was burned. Mrs. Barker was drowned. Express Messenger Mert Brown of Toronto is missing and is believed to be at the bottom of the river. The injured are: Fireman Whitehead, who may not recover; Engineer Elmes, slightly injured; Mr. Biekie of Middleville, Mich., en route to Red Deer. Several others were slightly injured. All mail matter was burned.

Coxey Completes His Jail Sentence.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Coxey, Browne and Christopher Columbus Jones were yesterday morning released from jail. They were met at the door of the jail by Oklahoma Sam, driving four horses attached to Coxey's phaeton. The four proceeded to the National hotel, where they shook hands with the clerk and a few friends who happened to be present. After spending a quarter of an hour in the hotel they started for the Coxey camp in Bladensburg.

NO JOY THIS WEEK AT BELOIT COLLEGE.

DROWNING OF TWO SENIORS AT LAUDERDALE.

Thomas Husman, Platteville, and Henry, Hay, Beloit—College Work Finished and the Young Men Were Taking a Rest Preparatory to Commencement Next Week.

BELOIT, June 11.—This will be a sad commencement week in Beloit. There will be two empty chairs on the stage, for death claimed two members of the graduating class yesterday. The men were Henry P. Hay of Platteville, Wis., and Charles H. Husman, of this city, who were drowned at Lauderdale lake, while bathing. The senior class vacation began Saturday, the young men going to Lauderdale for the rest previous to commencement week. Sunday morning they took a boat and later were seen swimming. Afterward, their boat containing their clothing floated ashore. After searching the lake thoroughly the terrible fact was revealed to the college men that their two classmates were drowned. Divers are now trying to recover the bodies.

The facts were telegraphed to relatives in this city and to the college professors, who immediately set about to render what assistance they could for the recovery of the bodies. It was in this lake that young Ingalls of the college, was drowned two years ago. Everything that human skill could do was done to recover the body, but the waters never gave it up. It is feared this may be the case with the bodies of Hay and Husman.

To Test Carnegie's Plates.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—At Indian Head proving ground some time within the next two weeks a test will be made of one of the seventeen-inch barbettes of the battle ship Oregon, with a twelve-inch gun, a projectile from which recently demolished an eighteen-inch Bethlehem plate. If the plate is successful in resisting the shots the entire lot of armor will be accepted. If it fails the Carnegies will not only lose $20,000, the value of the plate, but will run the risk of having the whole lot condemned.

Late Returns from Oregon Election.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 11.—Complete returns from twenty-five counties and nearly complete returns from the remaining seven give the following vote for governor: Lord (rep.), 40,039; Pierce (pop.), 25,451; Galloway (dem.), 16,375; Kennedy (pro.), 15,926. Lord's plurality, 14,583.

FRANK COX DROWNS WITH HELP AT HAND

SAD ACCIDENT AMONG BATH-
ERS AT SECOND SAND BAR.

The Dead Man Was a Good Swimmer and a Heroic Comrade Went to His Rescue But Unfortunately Cox's Nerve Deserted Him and he Sank From Sight.

Because he lost his nerve athletic young Frank Cox drowned at "Second sand bar" yesterday.

Despite the fact that he was an expert swimmer and that William A. Kastner, another expert swimmer, was doing all he could to help him, he died. Had he kept cool his body would not be lying on the muddy bed of the river and his parents would not be startled by a telegram telling of his death.

Cox, who was a student in Valentine's school, went in bathing at the fatal spot, which has already claimed four victims from the school, with a party of other students. Among them were four good swimmers, Frank Cox, the dead man, William A. Kastner, Clyde Robinson and Theodore Rosmussen. The quartette started to swim across the river and Cox was in the lead. Kastner swam by him and when he was a rod beyond Cox he heard the latter call for help. Kastner turned about and returned. Cox had already gone down once when Kastner reached him.

"Help me!" gurgled Cox as a stream of water flowed down his throat as he struggled.

"Hold your feet up" commanded Kastner as he grabbed the drowning man, "if you hold your feet up I can save you."

Cox tried feebly to comply but was too much excited and worn out by his struggles. Kastner worked heroically to save him but Cox finally seized him about the body and both went down together.

Gave Up the Fight and Died.

Then Kastner realized that he, too, would drown so he broke away. Then Cox threw up both his hands and sank from sight. The struggle began in the middle of the stream and by keeping cool Kastner had worked the drowning man nearly across when the latter lost his head and gave up.

Kastner's presence of mind was really needed and it did not desert him. As he, tired from his exertions in attempting to save his comrade, felt his feet touch bottom, another cry was heard from the river and Robinson called that Rosmussen was drowning too. Kastner did not stop an instant but turned and went bravely to the rescue for the second time. Just as he reached Rosmussen, Thomas Brossingham, a boy who was passing in a boat succeeded in rescuing Rosmussen, so Kastner's services were not needed again. Kastner was pretty nearly played out by his hard struggle, but was very modest in telling his story to a Gazette reporter this morning.

"I could have saved him if he had kept cool," Mr. Kastner said, "but I suppose that he was frightened, and swallowing the water had weakened him so that he could not follow my directions, although he attempted to at first."

Cox Was a Young Giant.

Cox was an athletic young man six feet and two inches tall and weighing 175 pounds. He was twenty-six years old, and a good swimmer. He came to Valentine's school on April 10 of this year, his home being at Mount Carmel, Indiana. His father, Meredith Cox, resides at Stone's Crossing, Indiana, and Valentine Brothers notified him by telegraph of the accident.

The work of dragging for the body was at once begun, Messrs. Valentine giving orders to spare no labor or expense to find it. The spot where the accident occurred is a dangerous one. Kastner said this morning that the water was warm and cold by streaks and that a swimmer would feel the change in temperature as he moved along. Many others have met death there before but it is still a popular swimming place as the water is deep enough so that a swimmer can dive from the shore.

Kastner, who made such a good attempt at rescue, is a stalwart looking young man of medium height and rather thick set. Too much cannot be said of his coolness and heroism, but he could do nothing when the struggling man seized him about the body. Otherwise he could have rescued Cox with ease.

STREET CAR EXPERT IN TOWN.

President De Sell, of the Fond du Lac Line, Calls Janesville's Business Big.

President De Sell, of the Fond du Lac electric railway, was in the city inspecting the Janesville road. The managers of the Fond du Lac railway announced that they would, on July 1, cease operating the road, giving as a reason that Fond du Lac people failed to patronize the road sufficiently to make it pay. A general remonstrance was made by the city authorities. To satisfy everybody the road officials resolved to visit other Wisconsin cities operating electric roads and compare business. President De Sell has visited Janesville and Madison. In Janesville he found receipts about double Fond du Lac's with about the same number of miles track.

LITTLE BOY SHOCKINGLY BURNED

Johnny Goodman's Escape Was a Very Narrow One—Flesh Drops Off.

Little Johnny Goodman, son of M. Goodman the drayman, who was so terribly burned on Tuesday, is suffering terribly. His arms are cooked, the flesh peeling off and revealing the muscles and chords. His shoulders while not burned as deep are blistered as well as his chest and abdomen. Here the skin peeled off and great blisters formed. The little fellow had a very narrow escape.

JANESVILLE, 9; CHICAGO, 4.

Battling at Critical Moments Won the Game for the Athletics.

Janesville added another victory to their long list by taking a fall out of the Atlas club of Chicago, yesterday afternoon. The locals did not hit as hard as usual but they hit the ball when hits meant runs. Lebbin pitched a fair game but his bases on balls were costly. McGinley pitched was effective. Dixon's catching and throwing, Birmingham's fielding and Morrissey's batting were the features of the game. The Athletics scored two in the first on George Wilbur's and Birmingham's bases on balls, Crall's hit, Lebbin's wild pitch and errors by Sing and Hardell, George Wilbur's base on balls and Morrissey's two bagger scored three in the second. Three more counted in the fourth on Holmes' error, Crall's single and Morrissey's home run. The last run was made in the eighth, on Snellie's fumble and singles by John Wilbur and Dixon.

The visitors tallied twice in the second on George Wilbur's error and singles by Gielow, Holmes and Lebbin. Two more counted on the eighth on Snellie's two-bagger, Connors' error, and singles by Gielow and Lebbin. McGinley and Wilbur worked a trick and caught Holmes leading off second, but Wilbur was severely out over the eye by the spikes on the player's shoe. At the end of the inning he retired and Birmingham went to second and John Doran third. Score:

Pitcher Larson was disabled by a lame side after two innings of the game between Holmes' Hustlers and the Rockford high school nine Saturday. Blakely went into the box and suffered from poor control of the ball. The score stood 10 to 12 in favor of Rockford at the end of the last full inning, but the Rockford's piled up eight runs in their half of the next, and the Janesvilles did not have time to go to bat.

Barbers beat the cigar makers in a hot game Sunday morning. The score was 15 to 9.

WATCHED FOR CROOKS AT 1:30 A.M.

Officer Hogan Was Ready For "Wisconsin Tommy" and His Party.

Officer Hogan met the freight train from Beloit that came to Janesville at 1:30 Sunday morning, but the people that he expected were not aboard. The officer was on night duty Saturday night, and earlier in the day Marshal Appleby, of Beloit, told him that "Wisconsin Tommy" and half a dozen other desperate characters were at the Line City with plenty of money and big revolvers. They did about as they pleased, and when the police were notified, they stepped across the line. Marshal Appleby said they were coming to Janesville, so Hogan was on hand to meet them. "Wisconsin Tommy" is an old Janesville boy, his name being James Hess. He is a brother of "Jack" Hess, the notorious jail breaker, who got out of the Janesville jail several times as easily as he would break out of a paper box.

Party at Adam Thorburn's.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the season was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Thorburn in the town of Janesville, June 7. The lawn was beautifully lit up with Chinese lanterns, and supper was served to about one hundred and fifty invited guests. Tuckwood furnished the music, and the young folks made merry until almost daylight. All went away feeling happy, and wishing that Mr. and Mrs. Thorburn would live to enjoy many more such parties with them.

BOYS WERE EXPERT IN POCKET PICKING.

GRADUATES OF THE WORLD'S FAIR CRIMINAL SCHOOLS.

Lads the Police Caught Circus Day Were Good "Kids" to Lock Up. Teacher of the Crowd in Jail at Aurora—Many Crooks Now in the Net.

Graduates of the World's Fair schools of crime were the three youthful pickpockets that the police captured in Saturday. Young in years, but old in crime were they and their training had been perfect. When Officer Hogan made a rush to catch them they tried hard to escape and one did get away but ran into the arms of John Lees who collared him. Officer Hogan put them into Court Lackner's buggy on River street to take them to the jail and the instant he lifted one over the wheels the desperate little rat attempted to go out the other side. The officer had that justly celebrated grip of his on the youngster's coat, though, and he didn't get loose. Not one word would they say on their way to the bastille. Two of them were caught in the act and the third one was captured in the court house park afterward.

"Where did you come from?" asked Officer Hogan of the boys.

"Afton."

"Who do you know there?"

"Mr. Maloney."

"Who is he?"

"He's a policeman."

"Who else?"

"Mrs. McCann, the grocery keeper."

"You say Maloney is a policeman?"

"I guess he is, he traveled about with the marshal" replied the boy without changing his face. As there is no marshal or Policeman Maloney in Afton the boy was arrested and weakened.

Teacher Is In Jail Too.

The teacher of the youthful thieves was not with his pupils. "Dayton Sam" was his name and the hard hearted police of Aurora, Ill., locked him up at that town.

"When 'Sam' struck the show two weeks ago he had fourteen 'kids' with him," said one of the Sells Brothers when asked about them. "He was arrested at Aurora and several of the boys had been caught since. If the boys you arrested are a part of his crowd," he said to Officer Hogan, "some of the men around the show may recognize them."

Hogan brought one of the "side show people" to the jail and the man knew the boys the minute he saw them. When the boys came to town there were three men with them and Chief Acheson thinks they were captured too as eight older crooks were arrested in addition to the "kids." The names they gave were Ed. Brown, Frank Murphy, Will W. J. John Hartigan, Jerry Burns, Joe Mellville, John Adams, John Johnson, Aimel Becker, Will Stone and Michael Flynn. Burns, Stone and Flynn were the three boys but as one of them was an Italian the police doubt very much if his name is Flynn. Becker claims to be a cousin of "Becker the wheel man." He and his partner were "shell men."

Skilful Young Crooks They Are.

The boys belong to a gang that were educated by older thieves during the fair and Chicago was overrun with them. They confine their operations to picking women's pockets when a crowd is surging about and do not try to rob a man. When they are captured they assume an air of innocence and cry and whimper like country boys. When they are cornered their appearance undergoes a change and they are as reticent as older thieves. The Chicago police are driving them out of the city as fast as possible, and that probably accounts for their presence in Janesville. The police turned the whole kit loose this morning as there was no case against them and they turned over what money they had to make the losses good.

"We could have picked up $500 here if we hadn't been afraid," said Becker this morning. "We heard before we got here that the Janesville police were 'corkers' and when the 'kids' were 'pinched' we didn't dare turn a trick."

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES.

Three Young People About Whom Much Interest Is Expressed.

It was no ordinary occasion that caused so many people to assemble in Magee's hall Friday evening and it was no ordinary class of people that assembled there, but our very best and most highly educated citizens who take the greatest and most interest in our educational interests for they knew from past years of experience that a great treat was in store for them, for which weeks of hard study and preparation had been spent, and era in the lives of three at least, over which they can but once pass. Flowers and potted plants had been gathered and everything that could make the place look pleasant, cheerful and beautiful from which three of our high school graduates were to deliver their final and farewell addresses to their schoolmates, teachers, parents and friends. How well it was done can only be learned by asking the opinion of those present, and so far we have only been able to get but only one reply. Too well done by all to express a choice. Roy Richards being the only young man in the class won the highest praise. Crystal Stair and Myra Mihills, the two young ladies, there being but three, expressed some beautiful thoughts and ideas which gave food for all present in such a manner as none could tire of hearing or regret their presence.—Evansville Tribune.

ALL GONE IN SMOKE IS BROWN'S HOME.

SUNDAY FIRE TAKES HOUSE,
BARN AND LEAF.

Big Tobacco Shed Containing Four Crops Included in the Loss—Five Thousand Dollars the Fire Cost, and the Insurance Will Be Less Than Half.

"There is all I have in this world," said Edward Brown as he surveyed the smoldering ruins of his house, barns and tobacco sheds in Harmony, just east of Black Hawk grove Sunday afternoon.

The fire had made a clean sweep, destroying everything.

There were about one hundred cases of tobacco in the shed, much of it belonging to Mr. Brown, twenty-seven cases to Frank L. Smith and Miles Kehoe, seven cases to Mrs. Amanda Sherman and nine cases to Cal. Jones.

In the barn were the farming tools, mowers, seeders, cultivators, plows, two wagons, two carriages and a handsome three year old colt that Brown was breaking for E. P. Doty of this city. A shed containing five pigs, grain and hay was wholly destroyed.

The house contained the family furniture and wearing apparel, besides a complete outfit of household goods of Mr. Brown's mother-in-law. Everything was lost in the flames.

"On Friday," said Mr. Brown, wiping the moisture and cinders from his eyes, "I raised three hundred dollars to pay my debts. I had fifty-seven dollars left after paying what I owed, and that little sum was put in a bureau drawer yesterday. If my wife did not take it out this morning when she went to town everything has been burned and I have not got a cent and only the clothes I am wearing."

Nobody Knows How the Fire Started.

The origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. Brown left home for the city about half-past two o'clock in the afternoon. The fire was discovered about 3 o'clock in the rear of the tobacco shed, and soon enveloped and destroyed every building on the farm, the wind being just right to cover all.

Brown places his loss at about five thousand dollars. He has a policy for $1000 in the La Prairie company, and $800 in the Germania of Freeport, although this may have expired.

The fire attracted a large number of people, both from the city and surrounding farms. It was seen by Frank Coulter and Con Mooney fifteen minutes after Brown passed their place on his way to town. Most of the men in the neighborhood were away at the ball games and help was slow in arriving. Men could do nothing, however, for the sheet of flame was blown directly down on the house from the tobacco shed as soon as the fire got under headway.

As said before, Mr. and Mrs. Brown saved nothing but the clothes on their back. They stopped last night with Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Mary Donovan, on River street.

The amount of tobacco stored in the burned shed is accounted for by the fact that Brown was exceptionally good at handling leaf and had been working a sorting gang for several months. The Sherman crop was sold Sunday morning to L. C. O'Brien, and was to have been delivered Tuesday.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK IS HERE.

Seniors and Juniors Leave School—Addresses to The Graduates.

High school seniors and juniors took all their books home today—one class to say good-bye to Janesville schools, another to part until next September. The juniors will be as busy as the seniors this week—decorating halls, ushering and acting as a very wide-awake arrangement committee.

Commencement week really began yesterday, when there were sermons to the graduates by Rev. M. G. Hodge at the Baptist church, Sunday morning; Rev. George Kaempfelein, at St. John's Lutheran church, Sunday morning; Rev. W. F. Requa at the Court Street Methodist church, Sunday morning; Rev. E. H. Pence, at the Presbyterian church, Sunday evening and Rev. S. P. Wilder, at the Congregational church Sunday evening.

The address to the graduating class will be given at the Myers Grand opera house this evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. W. D. Cole, of Whitewater will deliver the address and the Cecilia Ladies Quartette will furnish the music for the occasion. The various High school classes will have seats reserved for them, and the pupils will be decorated with their class colors. Other commencement week plans are as announced Saturday night.

PIANO VOTES THICK OUT IN THE COUNTY.

OUT-OF-TOWN CONTESTANTS
DO LIVELY WORK.

Time Is Growing Short and on June 30 Some Fortunate Young Lady Will Receive From The Gazette as Fine a Piano as Can Be Bought in the City.

As the end of the piano contest draws near interest grows intense. There has been surprise in the last few days over the gain made by candidates outside of the city. Milton, Afton, Clinton and Edgerton each have contestants enrolled and several townships are also represented. Throughout the county vigorous canvassing for votes is being done.

All question as to the quality of The Gazette prize has died out. The first Shaw pianos were placed on the market less than five years ago. Instantly the trade recognized their merits and put in bids for territory until at this time these instruments can be seen almost everywhere. S. C. Burnham & Co. of this city have for years been representing other first-class pianos but have been won by the construction, tone and quality of this new aspirant for honors so today they are bending all their energies in favor of the Matchless Shaw as it is termed. With no remorse of conscience they claim it is the finest piano they have ever represented.

With such a piano as a prize is it any wonder that the contest now going on is attracting universal attention? The candidates and the terms of the offer are as follows:

Annie, Tina
Baker, Bessie
Baldwin, L. M.
Clifford, Alice M.
Eldredge, Rose B.
Ennis, Mary
Frank, May
Foster, Lillie
Gifford, Alice V.
Gibbs, Maria J.
Holt, Ellen Huggett, Miss Olive
Hayward, Minnie
Kenyon, Cora
Kastner, Alice
Loucks, Franc
Nichols, Ida
Peters, Nellie
Pease, Bashie K.
Randall, Carrie M.
Wright, Ada V.

1. Any one, anywhere in any state is entitled to vote as often as they can buy a copy of The Janesville Gazette containing the coupon.

2. The lady who receives the largest number of votes will receive as good and beautiful a piano as the Shaw Piano company can make.

3. The contest will close June 30, at 9 p. m. Piano will be delivered as soon as the counting of votes is completed.

4. Any person who will bring the Gazette one new subscriber paid in advance will be entitled to the following number of ballots:

New subscriber paid in advance one month, 100 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance two months, 250 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance six months, 900 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance one year, 2,000.

No person will be allowed extra votes for stopping his paper and having it sent to another name at the same address.

In every instance they must be bona fide new subscribers.

HARPER'S HISTORY OF THE WAR

Harper's Pictorial History is universally recognized as the best history of the war yet published. This superb work has never been sold for less than $16 to $30. It has been sold only by subscription and but a very few men have been able to buy it.

The pages are the same size as Harper's Weekly and the work contains all the illustrations appearing in that great paper during the war. The work was edited by Richard Grant White and Henry M. Alden and is authentic, complete and reliable.

We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish Gazette subscribers with this splendid history of twenty-six parts at ten cents a part. These twenty-six parts will contain over one thousand war pictures and will make two handsome volumes when bound.

Many official documents of priceless historic value are quoted in full in the copious foot notes, such for instance as Lincoln's inauguration speeches, articles of federation of the early states, constitution of the United States, ordinance of secession, and many important papers, speeches, etc. The war story is consecutive and very fascinating. The introductory chapters, leading up to the struggle, and the chapter on the reconstruction period, are by some of the first writers of the age.

INDIA'S REPTILES.

The Country Is Infested With Big and Dangerous Creatures.

"Probably no country in the world contains more reptiles of every kind than India," remarked Captain L. E. Slocum, a retired officer of the British army, to the Globe-Democrat man. "Among the largest and most dangerous of these is the python. Although this snake has no poison in its fangs it is none the less to be feared, as it inflicts death on its victims as surely and quickly as the most venomous reptile. It grows to an enormous size, frequently reaching thirty feet in length, and with a body thick and strong in proportion."

"While I was stationed in India I had an opportunity to see a python seize and kill its victim, and the awful power of the reptile was fully impressed on my mind. I was on a hunting expedition with three brother officers, and while we were making our way through the jungle we were startled at hearing a savage growl come from a clump of bushes near by. Realizing that a wild beast was in dangerous proximity we hastily climbed to a place of safety amid the branches of a neighboring tree. We were not a moment too soon, for in an instant a magnificent Bengal tiger leaped from the bushes, roaring terribly and lashing his sides with his tail as he glared around in search of his enemies. In another moment a huge python darted forth from some place of concealment and before the tiger had a chance to escape had encircled it in its fold. The act was done with the rapidity of lightning. As the snake tightened its folds the eyes of the tiger bulged out from its head, its mouth gasped vainly for aid and the crunching of its bones could be distinctly heard. We killed the serpent."

A WOMAN'S POWER.

IT IS THE GREATEST ON EARTH.

It Establishes Thrones and Destroys Nations.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS]

The influence of women upon the civilization of the world could never be measured.

The flash of her eye, the touch of her hand, and we have the marvelous power of women, glorious in the possession of perfect physical health.

Lydia E. Pinkham, by her wonderful discovery of the Vegetable Compound has done much to place this great health power in the hands of women. She has lifted them out of the misery brought by displacement of the womb, and all the evils that follow diseased uterus.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restores natural cheerfulness, destroys despondency, cures leucorrhoea, backache, strengthens the muscles, restores the womb to its normal condition, regulates menstruation, removes inflammation, ulceration, and tumors of the womb, etc.

Here are two women who speak from experience, and for the benefit of others.

Miss Helen Smith, 43 224 Place, Chicago, Ill., says: "I was troubled with irregularity and leucorrhoea. I followed Mrs. Pinkham's advice, took her Vegetable Compound, and used her Sanative Wash. I now feel like a new woman, and am perfectly healthy."

Mrs. E. Fox, Woodstown, N. J., writes: "I had been sick 10 years with womb trouble and leucorrhoea. Doctors could not help me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did."

Employment of any kind does not trouble me now, and I can stand nearly all day and not feel tired. I cannot thank you enough. I recommend the Compound to every woman who has any weakness."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

RUSK WAS RIGHT.

Governor Rusk set an example that should never be forgotten when he dealt firmly with law-breakers at Bay View. It is never safe to dally or parley with incendiary elements. When indulgence is granted or concessions made, the effect is directly the opposite of that which is intended. All such proceedings are interpreted by those elements as an expression of doubt about the task of overcoming them, or of sympathy with their feelings and purposes. They are confirmed in the opinion that they will be permitted to do what they please, and that they have only to startle society with deeds of violence and bloodshed in order to secure what they want. This is the lesson of experience, repeated in many instances, and there is no excuse for failing to comprehend it, or for neglecting to act upon it. A gang of strikers threatening to violate the laws and to settle a labor dispute by force is nothing more or less than a mob, and it should be dealt with as such—not after it has shot men down and put the torch to property, but before it has nerve and inflamed itself to the perpetration of such offenses.

A DIVORCE NEEDED.

John Sherman wishes that the tariff could be separated from partisanship. So does every other thoughtful man who has seen the wisest and most conservative provisions set aside for no other reason than that republicans drafted them.

The divorce between tariff and partisanship can not be readily brought about, however. Ever since the beginning of the old whig days the tariff has been mixed up with party politics, and it is likely to stay mixed for a good many years more.

The country will be very sorry to hear of the serious and probably fatal illness of Hon. William Walter Phelps. He attracted national attention while in congress, and served with much credit as minister to Germany, and is in all respects the kind of a public man whose example is an honor to politics.

The tariff debate in the senate is easily the dreariest thing of the kind that has ever been known in this country. All of the speeches, with the single exception of Sherman's hav-been commonplace and repetitious, and the country will experience a feeling of decided relief when the monotonous performance comes to an end.

All the reputable papers of the south are making it a point to rebuke Rev. Dr. Cave for his silly speech at Richmond in glorification of the "lost cause." They insist that he made a donkey of himself on his own responsibility, and not as a representative of the southern sense of duty and propriety.

Those members of the sugar trust who have been subpoenaed as witnesses before the senate investigating committee come to the front with memories from which all facts about that deal with the democratic managers have been carefully expunged.

Greatest Day of All.

Talk about your hard times and all that. It amounts to nothing when the goods are sold in accordance with the times. Last Saturday we sold more goods than some of our supposed competitors do in a week. The biggest day we have had in two years. The people know our low prices on the best goods, and when they come to town patronize us. We have been busy all day—six of us. We know stores—clothing stores too, where there is a man and a "kid" and have nothing to do. We buy cheaper and sell cheaper. T. J. Ziegler.

A Busy Day.

"Straws show which way the wind blows," a competitor was heard to say this morning. "It is a mystery to me the business Brown Bros. & Lincoln are doing. Their store was packed all day Saturday—five salesmen busy—and only three of us and comparatively nothing to do." We can easily answer the question by telling you to consult this paper.

COMMENCEMENT day means much to the graduate. Probably no day in his or her life will be remembered with greater distinctness. To most of them it means the end of school days and the taking up of the active duties of life. With the taking up of the duties there is one important thing to learn, viz, the value of time. The best possible way to teach a young woman or a young man the value of time is to provide them with an accurate time keeper. A. F. Hall & Co., "the reliable jewelers" sell watches that will keep time and are showing a fine lot of cases especially suited for commencement day presentations.

We call your notice to this special bargain in our line because we know they are a dollar cheaper than any house in the city is selling the like style and quality for. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

Young Man Who

HE GOT HIS "75 CENT."

The Superintendent of Lincoln Park and His Setting Hen.

It is generally conceded that Superintendent Pettigrew, of Lincoln park, has an eye to economy in expenditures, and in negotiating for the park he is credited with usually getting the best at the lowest rates. But a certain Lake View hen fancier, late from the fatherland, got the better of him the other day. The knowledge that Lincoln park was in need of a setting hen having reached said Teuton's ears, he straightway waddled down to the park with the desired fowl tucked snugly under his arm, says the Chicago Times. Accosting the animal-keeper, he offered his treasure for sale, fixing the price at seventy-five cents.

"I must ask the superintendent," said the keeper, and while the old German waited outside the superintendent was consulted in regard to the matter. Mr. Pettigrew, remarking something about the amount of "gall" possessed by a man who would demand 75 cents for an old setting hen, settled upon 50 cents as the highest sum he would add to the debit account of the park in exchange for the bird. When given the superintendent's ultimatum the old Teuton exclaimed:

"Let me go in see that man mit de snecks on."

He was granted admission to the office, and, ambling up to the desk and looking the superintendent directly in the eye, he began:

"Say, mister, your animal-feeder tell my son-in-law you want a settin' hen. I brings her all de vay mit me down here and I asks you 75 cent. He says you no give me but 50 cent. Now, mister, I scharge 50 cent to carry her all the vay under mine arm like dis."

"Clt, clt," said the hen as her possessor clasped her closer to his breast and continued:

"You see, mister, I feed her all winter, cost me somedings, and she no profit to me much. Little while ago she begin lay me eggs and now she want to set. I keeps her und she lay me eggs and hatch me schickens—two, drie dollars this summer—den I kills her in fall and she makes me dirty cent meat for de table. You give me seventy-five cent or I takes mine hen back mit me home."

"Here, Mr. Clerk," said the superintendent, holding his sides, "give the man his seventy-five cents quick." Then the dignified park official threw back his head and roared so loudly that old Mage, in apprehension of impending danger to Jennie and the babies, sprang up in his cage and shook his mane defiantly. "Clt, clt," said the hen as she passed into the possession of Lincoln park, while the victorious Teuton tramped homeward to the merry jingle of the quarter and half dollar in his breeches pocket.

In Their Own Language.

A personage almost as widely known in the ecclesiastical world as his most reverend master was the late archbishop of Canterbury's coachman. He served Dr. Tait also before his elevation to the archiepiscopate, while as yet he occupied the see of London. Scores of stories have been told of the peculiarities of this individual, and the following, among others, was often related with the keenest relish by his grace: One day when, as the bishop of London, his lordship was returning from some meeting in the city, the carriage became blocked with some cabs, and the coachman freely indulged in an old habit by swearing lustily at the various drivers. The bishop heard him, thrust his head out of the window and sternly remonstrated. "Beg your pardon, my lord," was the smart reply of the unabashed jehu, "but I heard you tell them 'ere gents as was ordained last Sunday that if you don't speak to people in their own natural tongue you will never get 'em to understand you."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

A False Maxim.

The loungers around the only store in a little New England village were greatly amused at something that happened one warm afternoon last August. A tall, lank, barefooted man came into the store with a gallon pail filled with blackberries, which he exchanged for three quarts of molasses. He carried a stout hickory walking stick in one hand, and when he departed he put the pail on one end of the stick and threw the stick across his shoulder. He reached the platform in front of the store, when a shining new pin at his feet caught his eye.

"See a pin and pick it up. All day long you'll have good luck," he drawled out and stooped over to pick up the pin, when the molasses crawled out all over his back and neck. Straightening himself hurriedly the man said: "Waal, I never thought much of that air proverb, an' I think less on it now than I ever did."—Youth's Companion.

Cage Blindness.

"Cage blindness" is the Western name for a peculiar affliction to which Montana miners are subject. After working in deep mines for a good many years some miners, when they come to the top to work, imagine they see the basket suspended in the shaft ready to lower them down to the bottom. The illustration is so absolutely perfect that the poor, deluded man, if alone, is sure to try to step into the basket and he shoots through the shaft to an awful death.

SISTERS OF NAPOLEON.

Fatuity of the Wife of Murat and Her Gross Ingratitude.

Of the three sisters of Napoleon, says Pasquier in the recently published first volume of his "Memoirs," the eldest almost reigned in Tuscany under the title of grand duchess. She made herself beloved there, and this fortunate province owed to her a treatment denied all other countries then united with France. She has left a pleasant memory behind her, in spite of the irregularities of her private life, which she did not take sufficient care to conceal.

The Princess Pauline, wife of Prince Borghese, was perhaps the most beautiful woman of her time, and she hardly dreamed of giving prominence to any other advantage than this one. She had been to Santo Domingo with her first husband, Gen. Leclerc. The sun of the tropics had, they do say, been astonished at the ardor of her dissipation. The fatigue consequent upon such an existence shattered her health and for a long time she was carried about in a litter. In spite of poor health she was none the less beautiful.

It remains for me to speak of Caroline, the wife of Murat and queen of Naples, who bore a great resemblance to the emperor. Less beautiful than Pauline, although endowed with more seductive charms, she possessed the art, without being any more scrupulous than her sisters, of showing a greater respect for the proprieties; besides, all her tastes vanished in the presence of her ambition. She had found the Naples crown somewhat too small for her head and greatly coveted the Spanish one, but in the end she became resigned to her fate, and wore with good grace the one which had fallen to her lot; it may even be said that she did so with no little amount of dignity.

She was insane enough to believe that her fortune could withstand the catastrophe which swept away that of Napoleon. In that extraordinary race the most sacred engagements, the deepest affections, went for nothing as soon as political combinations seemed to advise it. Nevertheless, each one of its members possessed to the highest degree the family spirit. Caroline took a hand in bringing about the downfall of her brother, to whom she owed all her grandeur. It is perhaps she who dealt him the final blow.

MAJORITY VERDICTS.

Civil Cases May Be So Decided in Most European Countries.

In Scotland, since 1854, it has been provided that in civil cases, after six hours' deliberation, a verdict of three-fourths may be taken. And in British India the code of criminal procedure of 1882 makes a similar provision, and goes even so far as to declare that after due deliberation the opinion of six concurred in by the judge, shall prevail. In most countries of Europe trial by jury is used only in criminal cases, and in France, Italy and Germany a simple majority is sufficient. There is nothing in the reason of the thing, nor in the experience of civilized nations, to justify American persistence in this rule, says Frank Leslie's Weekly.

The constitutions of three of our states provide that in civil action, three-fourths of a jury may render a verdict; these are California, Nevada and Texas. In Texas it provides that the same rule shall apply to criminal cases below the grade of felony. In Connecticut the law provides that a legal verdict may be rendered by any number not less than nine in civil cases, where the parties shall agree to it in writing before the rendition of the verdict. In New Jersey, in 1882, the house of assembly passed a bill providing for similar verdicts in civil cases, but it failed to become a law. But this seems to be the extent to which the efforts to change the rule of unanimity have reached. As long ago as 1869 ex-Governor Koerner, of Illinois, made this suggestion: "A verdict returned within six hours should be unanimous and signed by every jurymen; after that time and within six hours thereafter a verdict signed by eleven jurors may be given; after twelve hours, and within six hours thereafter one signed by ten; after eighteen hours and within six hours thereafter one signed by nine, and after twenty-four hours one signed by eight may be given."

Philadelphia Women in Smoking Cars.

A conductor of one of the trolley smoking cars on the Thirteenth and Fifteenth streets line, in speaking of the popularity of the cars, said that it was a peculiar fact that they are being used more by women than by men. "The ladies frequently occupy all the seating room," he remarked, "and the man who wants to smoke, for whom the accommodation was really provided, has to enjoy his cigar standing up." When asked how he accounted for this the conductor replied: "Well, I asked a woman acquaintance about it and she told me that so far as she was concerned she liked to have men around her and added, and, as a rule, all real men smoke."—Philadelphia Record.

Sealed Letters Thrown Overboard.

The practice of throwing overboard from ships letters inclosed in sealed bottles is centuries old. Hollow copper spheres and oak barrels have also been used as sea letter carriers in attempts to trace the direction of ocean currents or to send word from persons at sea to friends on land. Barnacles readily attach themselves to these drifting letter holders and sink them. Only a very few of the many messages that have been thrown into the sea have ever been recovered.
